

October 5, 1961

Carl E. Green

Carl E. Green, 70, died September 23 at the Day County Hospital in Webster after a long illness.

Funeral services were held Tuesday, Sept. 26, at 2:00 p. m. at the Augustana Lutheran church with Rev. Albert Hemming officiating. Burial was in the Augustana Lutheran cemetery. Arrangements were by Paetz-nick Funeral Home.

Organist was Mrs. Mabel Pierson, Rodney Barnes, soloist, sang "Going Home." A mixed quartet sang, "Just As I Am" and "In the Garden." Pall bearers were Carl Johnson, Rueben Johnson, Horace Perkins, Randall Peterson, Arthur Schuelke and Andrew Wehde.

Mr. Green was born January 28, 1891, in Claremont Township. He was married to Gladys Rasmussen at Langford. He was a retired farmer, a member of the Augustana Lutheran church, the Harold Feser Legion Post No. 262 at Claremont, Masonic lodge and the Shriners.

Mr. Green received his elementary education in a rural Riverside school, his secondary and college education at the Gustavus Adolphus College in St. Peter, Minn. He was baptized and confirmed in the Augustana Evangelical church of Claremont of which he was a lifelong member. He served his church with pride and honor holding many offices. He took his turn as custodian and had the distinction of being a most wanted soloist.

Carl Green had many and varied talents. He possessed the ability to make friends easily and to keep them. He was known over the countryside for his natural God-given talent of music. He was always willing to share his deep and understanding love of music and he played his fiddle and sang at untold numbers of functions in the community until the time of his stroke six and one half years ago.

Mr. Green was held in high esteem by the entire countryside and his death has caused widespread sorrow in the locality.

Survivors include his wife Gladys, son Manley of Groton and a daughter Mrs. Robert (Marvel) Johnson of Groton and eight grandchildren.